

LIFESTYLE > SHOPPING

Unique Christmas gifts 2021: What to buy the person who has everything including personalised gifts

Georgina Kearney and Cindy Tran • 7Lifestyle • Published: 07/12/2021 • Updated: Tuesday, 14 December 2021 8:39 AM AEDT

We all have that one person on our Christmas shopping list who's impossible to shop for.

Whether it's a friend, colleague or a family member, it can be challenging and daunting to find anything that will impress them.

But to help you find the best gift, 7Lifestyle has you covered with these weird and wonderful items you can buy for the person who has everything.

Patterned matches

$10.50 from Craveweares

Coming in a range of different patterns, these matches add a bit of luxury to any table.

Team them up with your favourite candle and add that little bit of luxury to your world. Credit: Craveweares

Christmas tree ornaments. Credit: Cravewares

Homeware essentials

$31.95 to $89 homeware essentials from T.House

Gift someone special with beautifully designed homeware essentials by T.House that are sustainably made in Australia and designed with an aligned charity to which 100 per cent of profits are donated.

The range includes handmade ceramics, linen napkins, a set of stylish food and beverage accessories.

Gift someone special with beautifully designed homeware essentials by T.House that are sustainably made in Australia
Credit: T.House/Supplied

Personalised Cookie

$59 from The Confectionist

The Confectionist is a Melbourne-based company that creates personalised cookies. You can customise the cookie to the recipient's face, pet, or favourite book.